RWANDA STOCK EXCHANGE SMALL & MEDIUM ENTERPRISE MARKET SEGMENT RULES 2013

PART I – APPLICATION AND DEFINITIONS

Application

- 1 These Rules form part of the Rules and Regulations of the Rwanda Stock Exchange Limited.
- (1) These Rules shall apply to all parties associated with listings on the Small & medium Enterprise Market Segment of the Rwanda Stock Exchange.

Interpretation

- 2 The terms, words and phrases defined in, and the provisions of the Law regulating Capital Market in Rwanda, 2011, (including the rules and regulations made under it), and in the Memorandum and Articles of Association of Rwanda Stock Exchange Limited apply to these Rules.
- (1) Unless inconsistent with the context, the singular includes the plural.
- (2) Headings are purely for reference purposes and shall not be taken into account in the interpretation of the Rules.

3. Definitions

In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires-

“Act”	Refers to the Law regulating Capital Market in Rwanda, 2011, Laws of Rwanda;
“Acquisition”	Means an action where one company is buying a stake in an already existing target company in order to assume control of it.
“Applicant/Issuer”	Is a body corporate incorporated in or registered to conduct business under the laws of Rwanda or other legal entity whose securities are either listed on the Rwanda Stock Exchange or are subject of an application for listing.
"Authority/CMA"	Means the Capital Markets Authority established under the Laws of Rwanda;
“Cash Company”	Refers to a company that can no longer support its business capitalization and whose assets consist wholly or substantially of cash or short dated securities.
“Closed Period”	i) The period of 30 calendar days immediately preceding the publication of a GEM company’s annual financial results or if shorter, the period from its financial year end to the time of publication.

ii)The period of 30 calendar days immediately preceding the notification of its half yearly results to the Exchange or, if shorter, the period from the relevant financial period end up to and including the day of the notification; and iii)Any other period when the GEM company is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information;

iv) During any period when it has become reasonably probable that such information will be required by these rules to be notified to the Exchange or by way of press release.

“Founding Shareholder”

Means any shareholder or group of shareholders entitled to exercise or who control the exercise of fifteen per cent or more of the voting power at any general meeting of the company or one who is in a position to control the composition of a majority of the board of directors of the company.

“Day”

Unless otherwise specified, shall mean business day;

“De listing”

Means the removal of a security from the Official list of the Rwanda Stock Exchange.

“Founding Shareholders”

Refers to those shareholders existing at the time when the company is initially brought to list its securities on the SMEMS.

“Board of Directors”

Refers to the Board Of Directors of Rwanda Stock Exchange Limited

“Material Information”

Refers to any information that may affect the price of an Issuer’s securities or influence investment decisions.

“Member”

Means a Member firm of the Rwanda Stock Exchange Limited;

“Merger”

Means an arrangement whereby the assets of two or more companies become vested in or under the control of one company.

“MIMS”

Means the Main Investment Market Segment of the Rwanda

	Stock Exchange;
“Publication”	Means to publish in a widely circulating daily English newspaper;
“Reclassification”	Refers to a process when a listed company shifts from one market to another upon meeting certain requirements.
“SME MS”	Means the Small & Medium Enterprise Market Segment of the Rwanda Stock Exchange;
“Securities Exchange”	Means the Rwanda Stock Exchange or sometimes also referred to as “RSE” or “the Exchange”
“Sophisticated Investor”	A type of investor who is deemed to have sufficient investing experience and knowledge to weigh the risks and merits of an investment opportunity. For certain purposes, net worth and income restrictions must be met before a person can be classified a sophisticated investor. The distinction makes an investor eligible to buy into certain investment opportunities, such as pre-IPO securities, that are considered "non-disclosure" or "non-prospectus" issues. Certain assumptions are made about sophisticated investors: that they can hold their investments indefinitely (the funds do not need to be liquidated for cash needs), and they can assume a total loss of investment principal without causing severe damage to their overall net worth.
“Sponsor”	Refers to a company or person qualified to serve as a Sponsor to give market Advice.
“Trade Secret”	Means information including but not limited to a formula, pattern, compilation, program, method, technique, or process, or information contained or embodied in a product, device or mechanism which; is or may be used in a trade or business, is of economic value from not being generally known; and is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy;

PART II –LISTING ON THE SMALL & MEDIUM ENTERPRISE MARKET SEGMENT.

Eligibility criteria for listing to the SME MS

4. The following eligibility criteria shall be applicable for listing of securities on the SME MS;

- (1) That the applicant is a public company limited by shares with proof of compliance with required legislations as to its legal status and its operations in Rwanda;
- (2) That the applicant where applicable, has the most recent year-end financial statements as of the application date that have been independently audited and in the event that a period of six months has elapsed since the date of the independently audited balance sheet, the most recent quarterly financial statements also independently audited;

- (5) That the application concerns the admission of shares issued as a result of capital increase through partial or full restriction of the pre-emptive rights of the existing shareholders, or a capital increase through private placement;
- (6) That the company's Memorandum and Articles of Association do not prevent the transfer and circulation of the shares to be traded nor, except as may be provided under these Rules, prevent the shareholders from exercising their rights;
- (7) That the shares to be listed are freely tradable as ordinary shares, provided that the Board of Directors approval will be required in the case of an applicant with different rights attached to them.
- (8) That in the case of an applicant that has formally listed on the Main Investment Market Segment (MIMS) of the Rwanda Stock Exchange, a period of at least 5 years has elapsed from the date of its withdrawal from the MIMS.
- (9) That any application to be made under Rule (8) above shall be subject to a decision of the RSE Board of Directors.

Conditions for listing on the SMEMS

5. In all cases, the Exchange shall only admit an applicant to the Official List on the SMEMS on condition that its founding shareholders shall not dispose of their interest in the applicant for a three year period that the company is listed on this Segment; provided that:
 - (1) The founding shareholders shall not be precluded from purchasing additional securities following listing.
 - (2) Upon the existence of exceptional circumstances or events, disposal of substantial interest by founding shareholders may be allowed upon an application by the applicant and on approval by the Exchange;

- (3) The founding shareholders shall not be precluded from disposing of any part of their interest in the applicant except by way of delisting or by reclassification to the Main Investment Market Segment of the Exchange;
- (4) That where a company has been in existence for a period of one year or less, participation in the issue shall be restricted to institutional and other sophisticated investors;
- 6 The Exchange may make the listing of an applicant subject to special conditions, impose additional conditions or waive certain conditions in particular circumstances. In any case, the Authority shall be informed of any such conditions or waivers under these Rules.

 - (2) An undertaking by every founding shareholder that the shareholder shall not dispose or enter into any agreement to dispose of or otherwise create any options, rights, interests or encumbrances in respect of any part of its interest in the applicant, in respect of which they are shown in the application to be the beneficial owners;

- (3) A certified copy of the Sponsor Agreement executed between the applicant and its Sponsor;
- (4) The most recent year-end audited financial statements;
- (5) Copies of the agreements with intermediary institutions, if any;
- (6) Certified copies of the applicant's Memorandum and Articles of Association and all amendments thereto;

The role of the Sponsor in the application process

Application process

- 9 Upon receipt of an application under these Rules, and where the Exchange may deem it necessary, the Exchange shall respond to the Market Advisor within 15 business days from the receipt of the application.
- 10 Where the Exchange has communicated its comments or opinions as per Rule 9 above, the Sponsor shall submit a response thereto within 10 business days.
- 11 Following the receipt of the response of the Sponsor as per Rule 10 above, the Exchange shall communicate its approval or rejection of the application within 7 business days.

Authorized omissions to an application

- 12 The Exchange may authorize the omission of information in the application upon confirmation that disclosure of that information would be seriously detrimental to the applicant's competitiveness and its omission would not be likely to mislead investors with regard to facts and circumstances necessary to form an informed assessment of the applicant's securities.

Admission delays and refusal to admit

- 13(1) An admission to listing on the DEM Segment may be delayed where;
 - a) Any matter is brought to the attention of the Exchange which could affect the applicant's appropriateness for the Segment. In such an event, the Exchange will be required to inform the applicant accordingly;
 - b) The applicant does not or will not be in position to comply with any special condition which the Exchange considers appropriate and of which the applicant has been informed about.

- (2) The Exchange may refuse an application for admission to the Dem Segment if it considers that the applicant's situation is such that the listing would be detrimental to the interests of investors.

Admission and trading on the SME MS

- 14(1) Upon the successful application for admission to the Official List of the Exchange on the SME Segment, the Exchange shall;
- a) Issue to the applicant, a letter of admission to the Official List, in the format stipulated under Appendix 5.
 - b) Require that a press release in at least one widely circulated English daily newspaper be published. Details to be included in that publication shall include but are not limited to the following details:
 - i) Name of the company.
 - ii) Proposed date of listing on the SME MS.
 - iii) Securities Issued
 - iv) Signature of an authorized representative.

- 15. Following admission to the Official List, the applicant's securities shall commence trading as per the trading timetable included in the Sponsor's report and RSE trading rules.

Reclassification from the SME MS to MIMS

- 16 Where the Exchange considers that a company qualifies to be listed on the Main Investment Market Segment, it shall subsequently advise such a company on its prospects for reclassification provided that the issuer shall be in fulfillment of the eligibility criteria for listing on the MIMS.

Applications for reclassifications

- 17 An application for reclassification from the SME MS to the MIMS of the Official List of the Exchange shall constitute the following:
- (1) A formal application in the format prescribed in Appendix 6 to these Rules;
 - (2) The relevant corporate resolutions, authorizations and shareholder approvals in respect of the application;
 - (3) Certified copies of the published audited financial statements for the period that the company was listed on the SME Segment;

(4) A statement by the Sponsor on the background information of the issuer, including but not limited to the following:

- a) A statement as to the market segment in which listing is applied for;
- b) The Company's share capital;
- c) Information concerning the securities to be offered;
- d) The background information of the Issuer.

Effect of mergers or acquisitions on SME MS listings

- 18
- (1) If a company listed on the SME MS merges with an unlisted company with the intention of forming a new entity, application for approval of the merger shall be made to the Exchange. Following approval of the application, the shares of the SME MS listed company shall be replaced with those of the new company.
 - (2) In the case of two SME MS companies merging in a scenario where the share account is going to undergo changes, an application for that merger must be submitted to the Exchange for approval.
 - (3) If a company listed on the SME MS acquires another company whether or not it is listed on the SME MS, an application for approval of the acquisition shall be submitted in the instances where the transaction results in changes in the share account. Such application shall be accompanied by consolidated financial statements and pro forma accounts.
 - (4) In the case of mergers, it is mandatory that the independently audited Interim financial statements of the acquiring/resulting company, which shall be the basis for the merger, be announced.
